

Doolin Puppies, LLC

Health Guarantee

1. Seller Guarantees:

- a. Puppy is guaranteed for one year from date of birth for any congenital disease.
- b. A notarized veterinarian report from a full autopsy, stating that the death was created by a prenatal state will be required. Breeder's vet must agree and confirm the diagnoses. A replacement puppy of equal value and same gender will be given to the Buyer from the next available litter.
- c. No guarantees for diseases that vaccinations would have prevented.
- d. Seller is not responsible for any expenses (medical or otherwise) incurred by the Buyer or any shipping costs associated with a replacement puppy.
- e. Seller does not guarantee that puppies being sold with or without full registration rights will be successful in breeding or showing when mature.

2. Contract Exclusions:

Parasites, internal or external including coccidian. These can occur within hours and does not render your puppy unhealthy. These conditions are common in young puppies. Coccidia, for example, can be caused by stress when transporting or moving puppies. These parasites can be found on the ground, in water, and in public spaces and are treatable conditions. Cherry Eye in Boston Terriers is not covered as this can have many causes.

3. Buyer Responsibilities and Acknowledgement:

- a. Buyer agrees to enter into the contract with the full knowledge that once this animal leaves these premises, Buyer assumes full responsibility for its life, health, medical expenses and well-being.
- b. On this date the dog is in good health to the best of Buyer's knowledge, and Seller has shown valid evidence that all vaccines and deworming is current.
- c. Buyer has 48 hours to take this puppy to a veterinarian. If anything life threatening is found (caused before it left these premises) it will be exchanged for a puppy of equal value once or when one comes available. No refunds will be given. Any evidence of neglect or abuse by Buyer will void this contract. If Buyer does not take puppy to vet within 48 hours, Buyer agrees that this is an "As-Is" transaction.

Buyer's Name (print) _____

Buyer's Signature _____ Date Signed _____

Date of Puppy Pickup _____

Date of Puppy Birth _____ Breed _____ Sex _____

Seller's Signature _____ Date Signed _____